Numb. 4026

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 8. to Monday June 12. 1704.

Genoua, May 25. N S.

SEveral Barks are arrived here this day from Naples, with about 900 Soldiers on board for the Milaneze; as did likewise several Vessels about 5 days ago with Recruits from Thoulon for the French Army in that Dutchy: but they are most of them either too young, or infirm and superannuated, and all forced into the Service.

Warsaw, May 30. The Deputies of the Confederated Nobility continue their Conferences here with the Swedish Commissioners; and it is said the Alliance between them is as good as concluded; but is not to take place till after the Confederates have chosen a new King, and he has ratified the Treaty. The Cardinal Primate having sent out Circular Letters to the several Palatinates for their particular Diets to meet, in order to chuse Deputies for a General Diet, to proceed to this new Election, those Palatinates which are in the Confederacy have complied with his Summons; but there are such Dissentions among them, that several of these lesser Diets are quite separated, and others adjourned without coming to any Resolution. The King of Poland's Army continues encamped under the Walls of Sendomir, where the General Assembly of the Senators and Chiefs of the Nobility, who continue in his Interest, was opened the 20th Instant. It is said, that 15000 Muscovites, whom the Czar of Muscovy has sent to his Assistance, are arrived in Lithuania; That the Sieur Oginsky, who commands a Body of the Forces of that Dutchy, has defeated a Body of Swedish Troops, killed 320 of them, and taken 30 Prisoners; and that some Parties of the King of Poland's Forces have been very successful on other Occasions.

Hanover, June 10. Monsieur Lintelo, Envoy from the States General of the United Provinces, is lately come to this Place, on his way to the Court of Prussia, where he is to reside. He has deliver'd a Letter of Compliment from the States to our Elector, and another to the Duke of Cell. To morrow he sets out for Wolfembuttel, with Letters of the same Nature to that Court, and from thence will continue his Journey to Berlin. The Duke of Cell is expected here about a fortnight hence.

Mastricht, June 11. The Army commanded by Monsieur d'Auverquerque encamped the 3d Instant at Vileer, near the French Lines. The 4th they marched to Bovelingen, between Borchworm and Borchloen, rested there the 5th, and the next day they advanced to Munikenhoff, beyond Tongeren. This day they decamped from thence, in order to march to Hasselt. We hear the Enemy, who since their Retreat into their Lines had remained very quiet, are now advancing towards Diest, in order to observe the Motions of our Forces.

Kinsale, June 3. Sir Stafford Fairborne, on board the Medway, came in here last night, with several more of Her Majesty's Ships, having parted from Sir Cloudesly Shovell on the 29th past. He has also brought in with him 4 Prizes, two of them Privateers, of 10 and 6 Guns, taken by the Assurance and Orford; the third a French Merchant Man of 120 Tuns, laden with Salt, and bound for Newfoundland, taken by the Swiftsure and Maidstone; and the other an English Merchant Ship, called the Glover Galley, homeward bound from Legborne, and retaken by the Warspight. He intends to proceed with the first fair Wind for England, whith the Fleet which lately arrived here from Turky, under Convoy of 3 Men of War.

Falmouth, June 5. The Sidney, a Privateer, Captain Upton Commander, arrived here the 3d Instant from Milford, with two small Ships under his Convoy. Yesterday came in here the Prince Eugene, a Dutch Privateer, who brought in with him a Prize laden with Wine from France. There came in also another Dutch Privateer, who in her Cruize had met with a French Man of War of 60 Guns, and had fought her several hours, and received some Damage in his Rigging, but got clear of her by the favour of the night. The Elizabeth of Bermudas, Benjamin Howell Master, is likewise come in from thence, being laden with Sugar, and the Mary of this Place, John Row Master, from Lisbon, with Fruit, both bound for London.

Plimouth, June 6. Her Majesty's Ship the Penzance sailed hence yesterday to the Westward. The same day came in two Dutch Privateers, with a French Prize laden with Wine and Brandy. This day sailed to the Eastward a Dutch Man of War, with 60 Dutch Merchant Men from Portugal, as also several Ships from Ireland, and some Prizes, being all bound for Holland. This day came in here Her Majesty's Advice-Boat the Chatham Prize. The Sidney came in this evening from Falmouth, having under her Convoy 9 Sail of Merchant Men, bound for London, Southampton, and other Ports.

Plimouth, June 7. Sir Stafford Fairborne, who set sail from Kinsale the Fifth Instant, with the homeward-bound Turky Fleet, is now off this Place, and designs to proceed with them as far as Portsmouth. He left two Ships of his Squadron off Kinsale in Chase of two French Privateers.

Bristol, June 6. The Dragon of this Place, George Hart Master, arrived here this day from Zant, but last from Ireland.

Yarmouth, June 9. On the 7th Instant passed through our Road Her Majesty's Ship the Rochester Prize, with about 30 Sail under Her Convoy from Hull, bound for the River Thames. This day sailed out of our Road about 200 light Colliers, bound for Newcastle, under Convoy of the Chester and Nightingale. Her Majesty's Ship the Greyhound came into our Road this afternoon, with several light Colliers under her Convoy from the Southward.

Deale, June 10. Her Majesty's Ship the Solebay sailed from the Downes the 8th Instant, to protect our Fishery off the South-Foreland. The same day came into the Downes Her Majesty's Ships the Expedition, Exeter and Coventry, with 118 Sail of homeward-bound Merchant Ships under their Convoy from Lisbon, the Streights, and other Parts; but last from Plimouth. Yesterday in the afternoon came in Her Majesty's Ships the Hampshire, Pembroke, Flamborough, and a Fireship, and under their Convoy the Lexington, the Aleppo Factor, the Jane Frigat, the Leghorn Galley, the Mazarine Galley, the Resolution, the Hunter, the Crown, the Josiah, and the Ormond Galley, from Turky, with several other homeward-bound